I remember many special family gatherings with Uncle George! It was always a fun time piling into the station wagon & making a trip up to Detroit or having the Murphy's come down to Cleveland. Uncle I remember as such a kind gentle man. I loved him dearly an will pray for God to hold him gently in his hands. Karen Brayer

My condolences to the family. My last real memory of Uncle George was when he and Aunt Millie drove to Berea, OH for a birthday party for my Mom - the year we all bought her a new computer system - he just sat on the edge of Moms bed and was so interested in watching my Joe set the system up. Just sat there and watched so intently.
