Wow! We are in shock. We just read Aunt Pat's obituary. She and Uncle Fred were a huge, loving part of Jackie's (her niece, Jackie Sims Miller) childhood and I also loved her from the first day that I came into the family. She was our Matron of Honor at our wedding, almost 59 years ago. We were so happy to read that she passed away peacefully. We regret not having known of her passing so that we could have sent flowers and sympathy.

i don't know where I would be today if it wasn't for Grandma. I could always talk to her about things I couldn't share with anyone else. I will always cherish the memories I have from the craft shows, fishing, ice skating and just be grandma. Live and miss you n

The best grandma a child could ask for. She always had hug when you needed it, love, advice and never passed judgement, but told you how it was going to be. I AM THANKFUL FOR ALL THE MEMORIES SHE HAS GIVEN ME.
