Chuck Vernon Prill Jr.

NOV 15, 1954 - SEP 18, 2016

Chuck V. Prill, age 61 of Mecosta, passed away Sunday, September 18, 2016 at home surrounded by family. A celebration of Chuck's life will be held Saturday October 1st from 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM at his home in Mecosta (386 S. Cass St., Mecosta, MI 49332).

Chuck was born November 15, 1954, the son of Charles and Sally (Croschere) Prill. He enjoyed gardening, landscaping and simply being outdoors. He was a great builder and delighted in all sorts of projects from remodeling to building sheds and everything in-between. He would often help his children with their home improvements as well as doing his own. Chuck always considered himself to be "old school", valuing family time (especially with grandchildren) and having a strong work ethic.

Friendly with a crooked sense of humor could describe Chuck in a nutshell. He had many people come to him when they needed to talk about something since he always had an ear to lend.

He will be greatly missed by his wife, Monica Prill; mother, Sally Drake; children, Jennifer (Richie) Vorhees, Joshua (Courtney) Prill, Jesse (Amanda) Prill, James (Shannon) Prill, Jason Prill (Kristy), Justin Prill and Julian Prill; siblings, Debra Scherbinski, Dawn Duley, Donald Drake and Jenny Clemmons and 16 grandchildren.

Chuck was preceded in death by his father and sister Lynn Kilts.

My big Brother, you are my inspiration, you gave advice I sometimes took it sometimes I didn't, you were usually correct. But being your younger sister I had to be obstinate, none the less I really did listen, but couldn't let you know that. You are the bond that kept our family connected. The love you taught even in correction. Your family your children your wife will continue to keep your tradition of values all the days of their lives. You are ever etched in my whole being my Heart will use your words you taught me wisely. Until we meet again I hope I make you Proud.Love your sister Deb

There are so many memorable memories of my dad; good and bad, but isn't there always. If I had to pick one of my favorites though, I would choose the time my dad and mom and myself went on a trip to Kentucky to watch my brother graduate from boot camp; and a little mini vacation. I really had the chance to get to know my dad on a whole other level and I really think it put our relationship into a different category. It was a chance to see the fun, goofy and loose side of the man that always seemed so serious. It was the most fun I ever had with my parents and I am so grateful I had the chance to experience the time with them. My dad and I had our issues at times, but I loved him beyond measure and am grateful and appreciative for all he ever did for me and taught me. I'm going to miss him terribly. I love you daddy!

It's been many years since I've talked to chuck. Im his cousin Kim. I remember growing up and my mom and I stayed with my uncle Chuck (his biological dad) and my aunt Sally years ago when were young kids. His Dad was quite strict and young Chuck as I called him Chuckie would always make things light hearted with his kindness and sense of humer. He also taught me how to color. So, this is where we share memories? Hmm... the most vivid memory I have is... I was about 13-14 years old. My mom and I were arguing. She told me to go to my room. I refused. Grandma and you were there. Grandma told me to listen to my mom. I turned and called grandma a b*. And you you turned and grabbed me up quicker than sh and flung me across the room where I hit my head on the window sill... never called 'your mom' a b* again. Haha. That taught me something. Maybe not in the moment but your strict style taught respect for family. I love you uncle chuck! Always and forever!
