Dorothy was born September 7, 1927 in Ionia, MI, the daughter of Alvin and Beryl (Payne) Moore. She attended school in Harrietta, and eventually moved to Marshall, MI after marrying her first husband, George Lipar. She was on the Remus Heritage Days Committee, and helped with the Remus Historical Society as well as the Library. In her younger years, she even volunteered through EMS. Dorothy was an independent, energetic and feisty woman that enjoyed time spent with her grandchildren. You always knew where you stood with Dorothy, as she was never afraid to give her opinion, and always speaking her mind. Left to cherish her memory are her daughter, Deborah (Vincent) Mako; three sons, Paul (Phyllis) Lipar, Thomas (Melany) Lipar, and William (Brenda) Lipar; two brothers, William A. Moore, Richard A. Moore; 12 grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren. Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents; first husband, George H. Lipar; second husband, Robert Ohneck; brothers, Jack and Melvin Moore; infant brother, David Paul Moore, and sisters, Margaret Hurst and Connie Kinney. Those desiring may direct memorial contributions to St. Michael's School in Remus.

STEVE & DOROTHY SIMON lit a candleAs living in Remus half my life I remember Dorothy well! I even remember a time when she got right in someones face at the bar, after being told he had enough, and kicked him out. She was going to call someone to pick him up! The whole bar was so quiet while this was going on, then when the guy left, everyone stood and clapped for her! You had to be there. Her family and ours were always interconnecting someplace or some committee! Ray Simon is my Dad.Our prayers go out to your in your time of grief.
