Jean Marie Davy

NOV 25, 1957 - SEP 5, 2022

Weidman - On September 5th, 2022, Jean Marie Davy shut off the lights and closed the door one last time before leaving for a much needed "vacation." She is most looking forward to playing a few rounds of checkers with her brother, Bill Herdlein. She can't wait to sip some ice-cold tea and shoot the sh*t with her best friend Judy Cooper. Jean plans to spend her days riding the fields with Bunk Wood, and sitting on the fender of her dad, William Herdlein's tractor, while spending her evenings fishing with her Grandpa Little.

Those who will definitely NOT be going on "vacation" with Jean include her husband, Bud Davy, who may or may not have a small shopping addiction. Her "obedient" daughter Stacy (Matt) Nowak, and her "over emotional" daughter Nickie (Josh) Symon. She will very much enjoy the peace and quiet, as all four of her grandchildren, Morgan, Walter, Mckenzie, and Rileigh will also be staying home. And we certainly can't leave out her many nieces and nephews for fear that mom would disown us!

Jean was born in Mt. Pleasant, MI on November 25, 1957, to William (Kathy) Herdlein and Joan (Gerald) Little/Doan. Jean loved all her siblings, Bill (Gail), Marge (Jim), Pam (Rick), Cher (Neil), Rose (Thom), and Brian (Shelia). Upon graduating from Beal City High School in 1976, she then met and later married the man who was to become her best friend, Bud Davy. Together they built a beautiful home for their family with little more than patience and hard work.

More than anything Jean loved her animals. It was not uncommon to walk into the house or shop and see her nursing some little orphan animal back to health. She always said, "Animals are better than people because they don't talk back!"

At this time, there will be no services, however, a Beer Thirty Party will be held at the Cabin in her honor this October. In lieu of flowers the family would like you to remember Jean, by doing an unexpected and unsolicited act of kindness for another
