Etta Nadine Weber

MAY 21, 1929 - DEC 28, 2020

Paris - Etta "Nadine" Weber (Rodgers) passed away peacefully in the comfort of her home, on December 28, 2020 at the age of 91.

She was born in 1929 to Claude and Maude Rodgers of Paris, Michigan, graduated from Big Rapids High in 1947, and lived her whole life in the Big Rapids/Paris area. Nadine is survived by her husband, Ken Weber, and her sons Rick (Laine) Mitchell, Rodney (Crystal) Mitchell, and Robert (Kelly Jo) Mitchell. She was blessed with nine grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Royce Rodgers, Fred Rodgers, and her sister Helen Sanders. Nadine was an avid crafter and especially loved cross stitching, knitting, crocheting, and sewing. She loved caring for her cats, dancing to classic country music, and Sunday drives with her husband. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Many thanks to the Spectrum Health Hospice team members that helped to guide our family through this trying time with their help and caring assistance.

Per Nadine's wishes, cremation has taken place. Memorial contributions in her remembrance may be made for ARC (Animal Rescue Coalition) of Mecosta County or to Spectrum Health Hospice. Care and arrangements are entrusted to the Mohnke Funeral Home in Big Rapids. Share a memory or express condolences at mohnkefuneralhome.com.
