In Loving Memory Linda Proefrock - Big Rapids

Linda Sue Proefrock, beloved mother and grandmother of Big Rapids, Michigan, passed away on March 9, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of love, service, and dedication.

Born on July 28, 1948, Linda touched countless lives as a devoted teacher of home economics and science in the Reed City School District for many years.

Her passion for all things food-related, coupled with her love for teaching, made her classes not just educational but also inspiring. Linda's enthusiasm extended beyond the classroom as she found joy in sewing, quilting, scrapbooking, candle-making, and sharing her creations at craft fairs, especially those benefiting children. When she wasn't volunteering her time and talents or crafting, Linda could be found in her bountiful garden, gathering fruits and vegetables which she would share and can with others.

Her commitment to her community was evident through her involvement in St. Paul Lutheran Church in Reed City, where she actively participated in the Habitat for Humanity fundraising dinners and served as a beacon of kindness and generosity. Linda was also heavily involved in the free lunch program through the Third Avenue United Methodist Church in Big Rapids, where she loved giving back to her community. Linda's faith was the cornerstone of her life, guiding her actions and inspiring others to embrace service and compassion.

In addition to her teaching career and community involvement, Linda cherished time with her family, particularly her grandchildren, who held a special place in her heart. Alongside her husband, she dedicated herself to Scouts Troop 70 of Reed City and Hersey, embodying the values of leadership and mentorship.
