You were loved and you were bright, and you showed us how to shine when there wasn't any light, you gave us strength when we felt like falling and your voice still echoes everytime we call you. You will never be forgotten, wether your here, there, or all around. Your soul will live on through everyone you held. I will always feel your warm embrace and you'll forever live on in the hole you have made. You'll be with us while were down here and while you're up there but we won't forget you as Adam wright can not be forgotten. Keep us strong while we weep and make sure that we're safe while we sleep. We know you miss us and want to say hi, but we'll be there soon when it's time for us to fly..Gone but never forgotten.

I've was only blessed with your presence for a short time,it hurts my heart that you were called home way to soon. Your kind gentle caring presence was so refreshing. I will always cherish our late night laughs will always put a smile on my face especially the night that darn music ball was telling you exactly what she thought about the situation. Funniest thing I've ever heard... You will forever be in my heart. Give Heaven some Hell... RIP I ❤️❤️❤️
