Daniel Michael Riley

NOV 14, 1946 - DEC 29, 2023

Daniel M. Riley, age 77, of Stanton died Thursday, December 29, 2023, at Covenant Hospital in Saginaw, after a brief illness. He was born November 14, 1946, in Cadillac to George W. and Esther (Stevens) Riley. Through the years he was employed at Ranney Refrigeration, Electrolux and Hitachi Magnetics. He is survived by his son, Daniel M. Riley and daughter, Shelley Joslin (Jeff); grandson, Grant Joslin and granddaughter, Melanie Joslin. Dan spent the majority of his life living in Entrican, apart from his time serving in the United States Marine Corps. He loved being outdoors and spent his free time hunting and fishing. His days were filled with the companionship of neighbors, friends and family. He was a beloved father, brother, uncle and grandfather. He will be greatly missed. Funeral services will be held in Lakeview at Brigham Funeral Chapel on Wednesday, January 3rd at 11am with Pastor Steve Hale officiating. A graveside service will be held at Hillside Cemetery.

Cherish all those good memories and may they bring you all some comfort. And yes, Danny Mike, you sure do look like your Dad. I'll never forget going coon hunting with your Dad's dogs and them getting a opossum and you guys beating me with corn stalks as I walked unassuming down the rows. I laughed just as hard as you guys. Hope to see you soon, Liz
