Timothy was raised in Greenville where he attended Greenville Public Schools, and then furthered his education at Montcalm Community College, majoring in automotive. He has since been a self-employed mechanic for many years.

Timothy married the love of his life, Veronica Lynn (Jewell) Seaman on May 8, 2010 in Greenville. He was an amazing guitar player, and loved absolutely anything to do with cars, especially car audio systems. He also enjoyed fishing, music, superbuddies with his grandchildren, informational TV, and riding his motorcycle.

Timothy will be so very missed, and is survived by his father, Gordon Author Seaman, of Six Lakes; mother, Tammy Jo Hunt (Vant'Hof) of Ionia; wife, Veronica Lynn Seaman of Six Lakes; sons, Logan Scheuneman of Greenville and Camron Greene of Remus; daughters, Kaylee Seaman of Six Lakes, Racheal (Shaun) Ebel of Lakeview, Raven (Ben) Wright of Remus, Rebecca (James) Cohoon of Remus; as well as his beloved grandchildren, Jeremy, Jagger, Alarric, Savannah, Skylynne, Jaylynn, Rebekah, Nova, Everleigh, and Taven.

He is also survived by a brother, Harold (Tamara) Seaman of Ionia; sisters, Bailey and Janie Seaman of Six Lakes; as well as several aunts, uncles, cousins, and his many friends that were more like family. Timothy is preceded in death by his grandparents, James and Carol Vant'Hof, Phyllis Simmons; as well as his brother Gordon (Jimmy) James Seaman.

A service will take place at Oakwood Community Church in Belding (8750 Storey Rd) on August 6, 2022. The service will begin at 2pm, and family is welcoming friends and family to attend the visitation beforehand from 12pm-2pm. There will also be a luncheon following the service.

My name is Barry, I met Timothy for the first time Sunday at church. I could tell he was a great guy. I'll always remember our conversation. When i left i told him I loved him. I didn't have to know him to say that. My thoughts and prayers are with his wife and children at this most difficult time.

Where do I begin? I have way too many good memories of you to share just 1. You were my 1st love. And to be honest. The only man I ever fell in love with. I know its been years since we have spoken which I have to live with for the rest of life. And I am so sorry for the way things ended between us. But you have and always will be in my heart. I am also so sorry to your family and friends for their loss. From what I have been told over the years. You were a awesome, generous and kind man and father. Rip Timothy! Until we meet again.

I tried to think of a memory of you but instead I thought of your smile, your laugh, your jokes, your helping hand, your cigarette in your hand, your hat. I thought of you. I thought about the kind of Father you were, The kind of husband you were, how you taught your kids about music, vehicle repairs and how you loved unconditionally. And I smiled as tears fell for you. I smiled because I got the privilege to have you in my life for so long. Durn your skateboarding years too your tricycle bike years right up to becoming a PaPa. I loved you so very much My brother, my friend. May your troubles be gone as you rest in Peace. You are forever missed Tim. Always.
