Becky was a dear friend for many years, but especially from 1993 to 1997 when our sons were the best of friends... where one was, so was the other. During that time we shared so much laughter whether helping with a high school play or enjoying a game of canasta... which she always won. Becky was an awesome mom, and grandma, and wife. So sorry for her family because I know they will deeply miss her... as will so many others. Love to all.

Whether she was making fruit of the loom costumes with mom or VERY salty bean soup over the campfire, Aunt Beck always did it with fire in her heart. Some might call that passion. Aunt Beck always made time for me as a kid.....sometimes I needed to vent and she would listen, she didn't always tell me what I wanted to hear, but she actually listened to me. She made up her own rules in life and changed them as she saw fit, and don't worry, if she wanted to be heard, SHE WAS!!! Her presence on Earth will be missed, but I'm jealous of the fun she's gonna have with Grams! Craft into eternity Aunt Beck!! Love you Always! 🌹 I'll sing a few songs for you now and again, "Wind Beneath My Wings" and "The Rose" two of her favorites.
