My condolences to Mrs. Moblo's family. She was a wonderful lady who shared her poetry and ideas with us at the Lakeview Area News. I could always count on Mrs. Moblo to send us an opinion on an article, editorial, or anything else she had read in the paper. I appreciated her wisdom and insight and will miss her little notes. She raised an amazing family and I have had the honor of knowing several of her children. Mrs. Moblo was an inspiration to all who knew her and she will be missed. Linda Huckins

Raising 10 outstanding children would be enough for most, then she welcomed a teenage son-in-law into the family as we shared our mutual friendship for these past 49 years.

She's left us for a time; she left me...she left us. Tony is the only brother right now... with Mom and Dad. Lucky! It must be...has to be strange for Mom; like getting off a long train with windows blocked...movement moving... chugging along with the sound a jerky and confused train might make... like her last days' breaths. Didn't barely conceive who she was...let alone if this had a stop... or even that once the door opened ...so would her eyes for the 1st moment of eternity...without pain...sorrow...hurt...regret ...and ...and...and... Smiles...and joy- not named "joy" but the closest name to it; and she's looking for those lost stolen words taken away before... as her attention full on retrieving words that fly around her like the planes did Kong in that movie on the Empire State Building, which was completed the year she were born the intensity taking back those words suddenly interrupted by the TRUMPET BLAST!...quickly followed by voices...at first too many to know ..then...then...then.... Heart beating in Heaven un-stringed to vulnerable spirit...70 years that voice...glitter hearts cloud the face. ..my, my, my... The lover personified in her presence once again and - forever now..."PROMISE!" ..the one most missed and most seen when sights set on seeing...no comprehension what comes after seeing...but...seeing enough...the smile with no hurt and no pain ...just...just...just... Gloating is totally alright in Heaven... ..then another singular voice; familiar voice...your son; the son...Tony...lost too soon and out of order...both your hearts' permanent tears from earthly sudden sadness...now sewn up...now gone...no scar...whole. How can that be? It's HEAVEN, baby!!! God Reigns! And He watches her whom He created...He watches her run and leap and shed love though not losing a drop.. In the beginning was the Word and the Word is God. God is Love and Love covers all things; like a bright summer sun high directly above...no shadows...and lighting up ...lighting up...light...and love ...and joy.

I was just telling my youngest sibling Brandy that after she was born, my mom got an infection and had to go back into the hospital. She was born just before Thanksgiving so we had no mom to be with us for Thanksgiving. Lavonne kindly invited our family of 10 children to join their family of 10 children for Thanksgiving dinner...if you can imagine! It meant a lot to our family and I have great memories of that holiday! My mom loved Lavonne a lot and looked up to her as a great friend and role model. Thinking of all of you at this time with love, Gena Delamater
