Also surviving are four grandchildren and four great grandchildren, Andrea (Chris) Hallead with great-granddaughter Samantha, Ryan (Jessica) Marston with great-granddaughters Lucy and Vivian, Nathaniel Marston (Samantha) with great-granddaughter Hazel, and Jennifer (Krystian) Koperniak.

Vivian is preceded in death by her parents, her son-in-law Dennis Goddeyne, and her husband of 70 years, Edd L. Marston.

I'm so sorry that Vivian has passed. I lost Jerry last summer so I can really say I know what you're feeling right now. She was the best aide I ever

It's hard to say what was best about Grandma. The cookies, the chats, the warm hugs or, above all, the always open door to the house. From being at games to taking her exchange-grandson to Physical Therapy (a trip that would always include a pit stop for ice cream or hamburgers), there was nothing Grandma would not do for any of her Grandkids. I will for sure miss our traditional trip to Crystal Fountain (hope you did not get mad when by surprise I paid the last bill, LOL). Thanks for all!!! You sure made a difference in my life!!!

Grandma Marston was responsible for at least 10 of the so many pounds I gain during my life as an exchange student. OMG, she made the most amazing peanut butter cookies I have ever tasted. Not only a great cooker, she was also very kind and funny. She will always be in my heart.
