Jeff was my first cousin. His dad (Jack) and my dad (Don) were brothers. Unfortunately we lost track of many of our cousins through the years. I remember visiting the Demorest home in Entrican on different occasions since we lived directly N where my mom still resides. My hope is that Jeff had a good life, great memories, and lived life to the fullest. Sorry for your loss.

Jeff and his entire family were a large part of my childhood. Big family dinners together, his Mom Ruth made Spanish rice enough for 14 of us. Might I add it was the best! We had Jeff's sisters for babysitters and played with the Demorest kids everyday! Jeff used to tease me so much! Now as I think back, it was probably because he liked me! When their dad passed away from a car accident and Mom Ruth was injured my mom and dad jumped in and helped! That's what neighbors do in hard times! I'm sorry for your loss Demorest family. You're all in my thoughts and prayers 🙏🕊️❤️
