Otto "Dale" Hey

JUL 7, 1945 - OCT 30, 2017

Otto "Dale" Hey, 72, of Stanton passed away at his home on Monday, October 30, 2017. Dale was born July 7, 1945 in Entrican, the son of Otto William and Vivian R. (Pintler) Hey. He lived on the family farm where he was raised. Dale attended Lakeview High School, class of 1963, and then Michigan State University completing the 2 year Ag Program.

He was self employed as a farmer and also the owner of Dale Hey & Son Trucking in Lakeview. Dale enjoyed antique tractors, was a member of the Old Iron Antique Tractor Club, flying and spending time with family, especially his grandson Dakota.

Dale will be deeply missed by his mother, Vivian Hey of Stanton, daughter Sherri (Terry) Keilholtz of Lakeview, sisters, Joyce (Richard) Hamilton and Cheryl (Mike) Hadley, grandsons, Tyler and Dakota Keilholtz, Aunts, Verdena Borup, Sharlene Hopp, Close friend Jennie Moody, and many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Dale was preceded in death by his father, Otto William Hey, Sons, Otto Raymond Hey and Gregory Dale Hey.

Funeral services for Dale will be Saturday November 4, 2017 at 11:00am at Brigham Funeral Chapel, Lakeview, Michigan with Reverend Eugene Kooi officiating. Visitation for Dale will be Friday November 3, from 3 - 7 pm at the funeral home and on Saturday one hour prior to the funeral. Burial will be immediately following in Entrican's Hillside Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family asks that memorial contributions in his honor be made to the American Heart Association or to the college fund set up for his Grandsons % Sherri Keilholtz.

Dear Vivian and family, my heart goes out to you upon hearing of Dale's passing. He was such a kind, thoughtful sweetheart of a guy. My parents, George & Madlyne, and I, had the utmost respect for you Vivian, and Dale, as well. He had many friends who will miss him. May GOD Bless you and keep you close as he holds Dale in his loving arms. Love and Hugs!
