“ I have a lot of fond memories of Jim: Sitting through MarySue & Jim's warm July wedding at St. Mike's shortly after I'd had hernia surgery; camping with them (and others) on a trip to Cedar Point; helping Mike O'Neill frame his cottage near Johannesburg (where Jim worked twice as fast as the rest of us!); digging my yellow VW out of a snow drift after the Blizzard of '78 so we could try to get to a store and buy milk for Jim's sick mother; Jim dragging home a fresh-cut Christmas tree behind the snow-mobile -- a tree that turned out to be a bit too large for the space!; staying overnight with me when I lived in Cleveland and Jim's truck driving job took him through town; and I could go on and on. Jim was a big part of the family, and he will definitely be missed. ...Tim Wiedman
